Wellspring Women 's Center

Wellspring Women 's Center is a drop-in respite center for women and their children in Sacramento 's Oak Park neighborhood, established in 1987 to foster the innate goodness and personal self-esteem of all who enter its doors.

“ Hospitality with dignity and love ” is the foundation upon which Wellspring is built. Staff and volunteers are committed to providing a safe and caring environment where women can come with their children for some respite from the burdens and isolation of poverty.

Wellspring serves over 200 women and children each weekday morning through its Nutritious Meal Program, providing a healthy and substantial meal to our guests. Our Women 's Wellness Program provides mental health counseling, crisis intervention, support groups, case management and referrals to other community resources. Our youngest guests receive supervised play and early learning and enrichment opportunities while enjoying our Children 's Comer.

Wellspring is supported with financial and in-kind donations from individuals, schools, businesses, service groups and faith groups of all denominations.

Wellspring receives no government funding.
