

VOLUNTEERS WANTED!

Help Wellspring Women's Center 'spring' into action!

Do you have party planning skills? Are you creative? Do you have desktop publishing skills you'd like to use? Do you like to prepare table decorations or scrapbook? Want to help plant the seeds that will blossom into a fun and memorable event?

We are seeking committee volunteers for our annual fundraising events. Planning meetings are beginning now ... see how your skills and experience can bloom into a real difference in our community!

Wellspring Women's Center is a nonprofit organization which provides services to women and children in Sacramento's Oak Park neighborhood. Founded in 1987, it currently serves over 200 women and children each weekday. Our 2 major fundraising events include an annual dinner/auction in the fall, and a golf tournament each May.
